REVIEW OF FUNDAMENTALS OF NURSING 7TH EDITION TAYLOR EBOOK

- Many people have read The Giver and have many thoughts regarding the book. Some would say that the novel interested them and kept them want to read. Many of the people that have read the book have written to the author which is, Lois Lowry, and told her if she would write a sequel. But she responded saying that the ending was up to the readers imagination. The book focused on the journey that Jonas took after he became Reciever of Memory. As Jonas' perfect life got turned upside down with reality the book showed his strength and wisdom conquering the new differences he came upon.

- Imagine a world with no poverty, no sickness, no criminal intensions, a utopia you could say a perfect world apart from today's violent society. There are no colours, and no love, the community itself is very strict and organized run by a counsel of elders, who decide everything from who will receive a certain role, and one ordinary boy has to bare the incredible burden of being the Receiver of Memories, the most honored and respected job in the community. Jonas is that boy he had to receive personal lessons from The Giver (the previous receiver of memories) learning the truth about the world, digging into the past and Jonas will change his fate and discovers a dark secret that may change his life forever. I thought that this book was just a must read once I started the book I just couldn't put it down. It's like the book catches you in a trance. But the only bad thing about the book was that I thought the book ended too soon, it just jumps from the most climatic part of the story to the end. Overall, it was amazing this book is a must read and out of 5 I would rate it a 4.5 . Jonathan
