REVIEW OF BANG MORE LAYS IN 60 DAYS

- I find Rosamunde Pilcher to be a fascinating story-teller.
Yes, these are romance stories, and that is usually not my favorite type of story, as I am a mystery buff. Laura Haverstock is recovering from an illness in a beautiful environment with total strangers, relatives of her husband's, and is wrapped in loving friendship and comfort.

She is also longing to bond with her husband Alec's daughter,
Gabriel, who has lived in the United States
most of her life. All things come together, as Gabriel arrives in Scotland, on the coast of Cornwall, and her life is mended again.
I have read many, many books by Mrs Pilcher.
My favorite of all is The Shell Seekers, but I would recommend everyone of her books to someone who is looking for a "feel-
good" book to read,
nothing complicated
and requiring deep concentration; just a story to read, looking forward to a mostly happy ending, and getting intertwined in the lives of those in the plot. Great reading!

- This book is great. I loved the way Blaise and Thea battled over Eric, though they should have given Blaise a soulmate too. I would like to know what happens to Thea and Eric after they go to live with his mom
