REVIEW OF HOTWIFE JOURNAL

- I stayed up late tonight to finally finish this book. Seems like I really didn't care for the characters, but did appreciate their composure. I also bypassed the sex scenes(of course- I'm an Amish author.) Anyway, I thought I was in history class again at moments like the social differences and political influences. It really wasn't a book that I usually purchase, but I gave it a chance when I heard it won the Booker Prize. It didn't let me down! On a scale of 1 to 10, it gets a 10! Lastly, "way to go!" to Mr. Hollinghurst for receiving the Booker Prize!!
- Most of the time I was sleeping of bordem. Waiting for action, but the only action I got was me drooling on my pillow. Sometimes there was action but lasted for about a minute, then another 100 pages for a little more action. Wasn't pleased.
