REVIEW OF ANALYSIS OF CONCEPTUAL METAPHOR IN THE SESOTHO CATHOLIC

- A fable in which the "perfect society" has eliminated all conflict by eliminating things like color, music, and most things about which one could be passionate. The young boy coming of age discovers these things and tries to break away. It's a good story to get kids talking about what matters in life. What is worth fighting for. That all conflict is not bad. That passions make life worth living. Provocative.

- The Giver is a great science fiction book for young adults to read because it deals with tales and stories of human society from the past and tries to enlighten them in the present and future. The main characters were Jonas, who was a boy of twelve, has been selected to be the Receiver of Memory and The Giver, who once used to be the receiver and now has to give his power to Jonas. Jonas doesn't think it's fair that he has to suffer the pain of remembering so many secrets of the past while everyone else isn't. In their world, there were no colors, no pain, no love, and there's barely any choice to do what you want. After holding so much power of remembrance Jonas doesn't think that the world he lives in is a perfect world after all. So in the end Jonas and the The Giver makes a plan to escape the utopian world to find freedom and true life.
