REVIEW OF THE BONES OF GRACE PDF BY TAHMIMA ANAM

- Alice Hoffman uses a splendid narrative style to reveal how extraordinary life is. Her talent has captured me from the beginning till the end. This novel starts with telling us the Owens women had been blamed for everything that had gone wrong in their Massachusetts town. Gillian and Sally were two of them, one was beautiful and lazy whereas another one was very responsible. Their aunts encouraged them to practise witchery but what Gillian and Sally only wanted was to escape. Though they were separated, but finally they're back together. Practical Magic not only describes witchery, but also the "magical" relationship between the Owen sisters. The novel is charming, funny and written in great rhythm. Once you start reading Practical Magic, it's hard to put it down because of the great narrative flow. The novel is as enchanting as the movie. Practical Magic is one of her best novels and you can't miss it.

- Read this book on a cross-country road trip and it was really enjoyable. Couldn't wait to read the next segment when I switched off from driving. Great characters, great story, very engaging. Almost nothing like the film, but if you go into the book knowing that, you can enjoy both the film and the book based on their separate merits. Both have things to offer.
