REVIEW OF SOALAN PENGUKUHAN PENGAJIAN MALAYSIA

- This book, and the slightly more detailed "Million Dollar Consulting" are "must reads" for any contemplating consulting, as well as us 'old timers'. I have 10 years experience in full-time consulting (medical device / pharma / regulatory affairs), and have read all of Weiss' books, rereading several many times. However, these two books present the best over-views of this career, with solid advice. While his advice is no longer new, I personally know many consultants who employ very few of his suggestions, and most of these fail after a few years. A periodic read of these two books allows me to continually readjust my strategic plans. A key benefit is that this causes me to act on another of his points, resulting in greater business success. Some complain about his books, but I value the points made and his method of presentation. Although I think most of Alan's income is now gained on the speaker circuit and mentoring (which other consultants may also choose to follow), the information in these books is firmly based on experience from his early years in consulting, as well as on his current experiences with those he mentors. For the cost of 2-3 magazines, one can often significantly increase their income by really applying the advice in these books. His key premise of value-based pricing, up-front fees (33, 50 or 100%), plus his suggestions for recycling material, have greatly benefitted my practice. That's real VALUE in my 'book'.

- Most books about cats have them dressed in silly clothes or in crazy poses and that just makes me ill.....but Silvester takes stunning photographs of cats from a distance to maintain a natural feel! And in such a beautiful location! If you are a cat lover, you will greatly appreciate his books. I was sad to learn though, that he has a book of dogs out :(
