REVIEW OF JEE HOTEL MANAGEMENT QUESTION PAPERS

- Trust and Betrayal in the Workplace presents a way of looking at trust that makes sense. And, we need something about trust that makes sense. Trust is a concept that everyone talks about, especially when there isn't enough of it, but few can really understand. The Reinas have created a way of looking at trust that we can understand. They look at three forms of trust (Communication, Contractual, and Competency) which are easy to grasp. Haven't we all had someone break confidence about something we shared with them.

Upholding agreements is also a point of concern for us all. I have certainly worried about whether someone was capable of doing what they said they would do. The Reinas also reminds us that this is not just about whether or not we trust others, sometimes we don't trust ourselves in these three areas. Their view of trust quickly leads to concrete things that can be done to build or rebuild trust. They don't just bemoan the impact of betrayal in the workplace, using their model of trust, they provide straightforward ways of recovering. I am using what I learned from the book and when I explain it to others, they like it too. Trust and Betrayal is easy to read and full of very helpful information. I highly recommend this book and urge you to buy and use it too.

• Zenna Henderson's people are the epitome of what most earthlings wish to be: loving, innocent, humorous to the point of levitation, telekenetic. They're new adventure on earth becomes more and more complete as the different "landings" find one another. To have found an earthling school teacher who patiently endeavors to understand the children and their ways, and who finally finds acceptance by their parents through her delicate position was truly a stroke of luck (or could it have been heaven-ordained?) I have been re-reading my "Zenna" books for 25 years, and they are truly becoming worn. I've shared them with my friends and children and am now ready to start with my grand-children. The stories are very wholesome, and good "grandma" builders. I only hope they last a little longer!
