REVIEW OF ISUZU 4 CYLINDER 4ZB1 SERVICE MANUAL

- I've read this novel 3 times, and each time I notice something new. Golding does an amazing job of digging deep into the souls of all the students trapped on the island. His use of symbolism and foreshadowing is uncanny. I definitely recommend you read this novel.

- I am 13 years old. I was not required, but chose to read this book. I thought that it would be somewhat interesting... I was dead wrong. First of all, Golding is one of the dullest writers ever. For example, he could explain how the tide of the beach would move, or how the sun sets and rises for 2 pages (this isn't exaggeration). Yet he can sum up one of the boy's death in less than half of a page. Second, if you've got something to say about society, don't use teenagers to say it. He obviously knows nothing about the way that real children would act. For example, when the savage boys kill one of the main characters in the story, they don't say anything like, "Oh my gosh we've just killed somebody!", they do say things like, "See what we did? That's what we'll do to you!" He explains about a monster, "The Beasty," very briefly. You never get to find out what it is, why it's there, or even what it represents. Even if you are some kind of deranged man who likes to read about the deaths... no... killings of little children, I still wouldn't recommend this book for you. It is too dull to keep up with. Don't think of me as some bratty little kid just trying to bring the score of this book down either. I really read this book, and I hated it. For the kids reading this, notice that most other kids don't like it either. Thank you
