REVIEW OF UNDERSTANDING MOTOR DEVELOPMENT 7TH EDITION

- The other reviewers do a good job of summarizing the plot of this novel, so I will not go into those details. My one compliment to this book is that the truths of the Catholic faith are presented honestly as the young man struggles to defend his beliefs against many common misconceptions and accusations. As a story itself, however, the novel is trite and irritating. I really wanted to connect to this young man who lost his father, but the characters of the young man, his dead father, his mother and siblings were too idyllically drawn to be real. While I know many good Catholics and happy families, I could not relate to the O'Sheas of this book as they seemed so cloyingly perfect. I couldn't finish this book and I wouldn't even consider handing it to one of my teenagers. Perhaps those who live in a Catholic "bubble" might find this novel interesting. I, for one, would rather study the catechism with my children to deepen our faith and then, when reading time comes, encourage my children to crack open novels with well-developed, complex and compelling characters, settings and plots. This novel is not one of those.

- Awesome aid in helping my son prepare for testing. Came in great shape and quickly. Amazon continues to impress me by tracking my purchases and outstanding customer service
