REVIEW OF A RAISIN IN THE SUN ANSWERS FOR STUDY GUIDE

- Fantastic! I have read this book twice. I love the way the author narrates the real life drama of these murders, murderers and inefficiency of the LAPD. It is probably one of the scarriest books I have read so far. The author does a great job of explaining the psychological influences of Charles Manson and the crazy/hipnotic behavior of the Manson Family. He also paints a very clear picture of the long and difficult trial and the obstacles that needed to be overcome to convict Manson and his followers. It's a very interesting book from a psychological and legal stand point. I probably will read it again some time soon because the second time around helped me understand even more, the real-life occurrences and legal complexities of this case.

- A passionate home cook that has been honing her cooking skills for the last 25 years, concentrating on Italian cooking for the last 10 years, writes this review. My favorite cookbooks are "The Professional Chef" by the Culinary Institute and "Culinary Artistry". With more than 500 cookbooks in my collection I am usually disappointed in my recent cookbook acquisitions. I am also very tough on Italian cookbooks in particular. My husband and I decided to try a vegan lifestyle about 3 months ago to reduce cholesterol. However, having to give up many of our favorite Italian foods was extremely difficult. Thankfully, as I was beginning to consider adding dairy back to our menu I found this book. It is a much better Italian cookbook than I expected it to be. The book is outlined as follows: 1. Italian Cuisine 2. Ingredients and Equipment for Italian Cooking 3. Basic Recipes and Techniques 4. Sauces 5. Appetizers, Vegetable Side Dishes 6. Making Fresh Pasta 7. First Courses (Primi Piatti) 8. Pasta in Sauce 9. Stuffed Pasta: Dumplings, Crepes, and Baked, Layered and Molded Pasta Dishes 10. Pasta in Broth and Soups 11. Cornmeal and Rice Dishes 12. Second Courses (Secondi Piatti) 13. Baked Dishes: Omelets, Savory Cakes, Tarts, Gratins, and other Vegetable Casseroles 14. Vegetable and Bean Entrees and Stews 15. Meat Free Entrees 16. Bread, Rolls, Pizza, Hearth Breads and Stuffed Breads 17. Sweets Some of the basic recipes that the author includes are: Tofu Ricotta, Tofu Mascarpone, Tofu Ricotta Salata, Almond Ricotta, Soy Free Almond Ricotta Salata, Cashew Mascarpone, Tofu version of Heavy Cream, Vegetarian Burger,

Vegetarian Hot Italian Sausage, Vegetarian Sweet Fennel Sausage, Seitan (Beef, Veal, Chicken, Pork, Burger, Hot Italian Sausage versions). She also includes a number of different variations for Polpetti (meatballs). Many of the recipes included in this book are time consuming. However, this is no different than standard Italian homemade items. I don't recommend this book to people that have limited time or limited experience with Italian cooking. Bottom line, this is a much better cookbook than I expected it to be. Can I tell it isn't meat and/or dairy? Absolutely I can tell the difference. The author's variations are satisfactory substitutes if the alternative is the unpleasant health effects that come with the regular consumption of high fat animal products. I would recommend this cookbook to anyone that loves Italian food and wants to cut back on his or her consumption of saturated fat.
