REVIEW OF DIRECTED READING SECTION HOW DID LIFE BEGIN ANSWERS

- Letters From Rifka Letters From Rifka by Karen Hesse is a story about a young girl named Rifka writing letters to her cousin Tovah about her hectic adventure to America. This story takes place from Russia to Poland and ends in Ellis Island. In the beginning Rifka and her family have to escape from Russia because they're Jewish and have to escape from the dangers the Nazis' bring them. Their only mission is to go to America, where all dreams come true. On the way to America, Rifka and her family go through Poland. This is where Rifka suffers from ringworm and typhus. These horrific sicknesses force Rifka's family to leave her behind. While Rifka's family is on their way to America, Rifka stays with a couple that takes in sickly immigrants until they recover. When Rifka was well and healthy again she got on the boat to Ellis Island. After Rifka arrived to Ellis Island something terrible happened! Find out what happens and read the book Letters From Rifka. Will she have a happily ever after or never see her family again? This extraordinary book is based on a true story. It is surprising and the suspense will never let you put it down. I recommend this book to people who enjoy historical fiction. Hopefully you all love it as much as I do. By: Evita Walch

- I absolutely loved this book so much that I had to read the entire thing all at once. This is a (partially) true story about a 12-13 year-old Jewish Russian girl who immigrates to America with her family during WWI. The author was very descriptive of immigrants' hardships on their voyages to America, which is part of why I loved the story so much. The other reason I enjoyed the book was because Rifka had a great personality and she wrote not only about the world around her, but her own life in letters to her cousin Tovah. She didn't actually send the letters, she just kept a diary in a poetry book by Pushkin which Tovah had given her as a gift. I enjoyed this book thoroughly, and I recommend it to anyone who loves history or loves a great story.
