- You need to read this to know our current world. I saw:That people will do anything to escape their pain.Medicine can enslave people.Most people do not want the responsibility of freedom.There will always be people who resist tyranny.And More.

• Reading "Brave New World" for the first time, quite some time after it was originally published, definitely affects how you read and perceive the book. Instead of reading it as sort of a "sci-fi" tale, it struck me as a book that seems to explain, in certain areas, where the world could be heading. With science improving and government becoming more controlling some aspects of the book are not so far fetched. I would not go so far as to say that we are heading for a world exactly like the one in Huxley's book, but the book is a good example of how ridiculous such a world would be.
