REVIEW OF FIESTAS INFANTILES KIT GRATIS PDF

- This book is amazing. I truly, totally recommend it. I just finished reading it and I was terribly disappointed when it was over. I didn't want it to end. I rarely enjoy a book as much as I enjoyed this one. It draws you into the lives of the characters, so you grow to understand and sympathize with them, and care about what happens in their lives. It's one of those books that are the best in the first reading, but still amazing enough to read many times afterwards....

- A Tree Grows In Brooklyn is the first book that I have ever truly hated. I usually choose books with topics and intersets that I like. I, and like a lot of people, do not like to be told what I have to read. This was I book I had to read for summer reading. Out of all the books on the list and that I have ever read, this was the worst piece of crap that I have ever read. The main thing that made me hate this book was that the depressing and sad life lead by Francie Nolan, is that it is very much like mine. She is me living in the 1800's. The story is about Francie and her family's struggle through poverty, death, periods of no food and money, and most importantly, alcoholism. When you think that things can't get any worse, they do. Out of all the characters in the book I hate Johnny Nolan. He is just like my dad, but when my dad is drunk he is a jerk. I don't know how she can love someone who is holding her back from the world. She and the rest of her family give up alot for thier father's little things like clean shirt, beer and bus money. My favorite part in the book was when he died. I celebrated this convince for Francie....
