REVIEW OF CBSE CLASS 10 GOLDEN

- Ian Rankin brings Scotland's underbelly to life. The use of characters and locales from previous books makes the plot and Rebus come to life

- This is the book I hear a lot of home brewers recommend. In fact it came with my beer making kit at a local shop. I've read this book cover to cover and found it fun to read. I've made several batches of beer with the aid of this book and have never made a bad batch yet. The book is simple to understand, including more advanced subjects as mead making and making your own malt.
