REVIEW OF 2006 HONDA CIVIC BOOK

- This book is great! I have numerous friends whose lives were changed by it. Must be read and owned by anyone with these issues.
- Having never read any of Terry Pratchett's work before, I have to admit that I was more than impressed with his novel, "Small Gods". Not only was it extremely entertaining, but it was also very thought provoking and the kind of book you have to read many times to catch all of the nuances and details, and to absorb the pure, satiric pleasure of it all. One of my favorite characters is the blind prophet Didactylos, who carries a "lantern that doesn't shine for a man that doesn't see" because it "works perfectly, and of course, is very philosophical". In my opinion, this not the "usual" fantasy novel in any way. It is an extremely smart, witty, entertaining, and intelligent read (for a book of ANY genre), and I will enthusiastically recommend it to anyone who asks! So do yourself a favor and READ THIS BOOK!
