REVIEW OF CRIMSON SPELL 5 YAOI MANGA

- This 200 year historical perspective on women in missions left me at times incredulous, inspired, angry and wondering where there might be a place for me on the "God's work" timeline. Loved it. Great background for women in ministry. Looks at denominational missions and then the advent of faith missions. Get to know the sisters before you! (Most of the book is about Protestants - Catholics history addressed in the last two chapters.)
- If you want to read a book that restores your faith in mankind and tells an interesting side to 9/11, this is a must read. I was thoroughly entertained and educated at the same time and learned about Newfoundland.
