REVIEW OF COST ESTIMATING SIMPLIFIED LIBRIS DESIGN

- I think that The Bean Trees is an awesome book. It is an example of fine american literature today. I really can relate to the characters. I recommend this to anyone who's looking for a good book to sit down and read. This book has you hooked after the first page. It leaves you open-mouthed and smiling!

- A good read for fans of John Norman and his protagonist, Tarl Cabot. Although Mr. Norman is sometimes given to overly-detailed technical descriptions and the occasional bit of turgid prose, this is a fine read for those interested in the World of Gor and provides more insight into the mind and make-up of Tarl Cabot and of the customs, history, and people of Counter-Earth. I strongly recommend it for those who enjoyed the first novel in the Gorean saga, "The Tarnsman of Gor." I enjoyed this book as much as the first novel.
