REVIEW OF UNFORGIVABLE BLACKNESS THE RISE AND FALL OF JACK JOHNSON

- I have learned so much from this book about Ansel as well as many other notable photographers as well. Very well written - easy to read - hard to put

- This book covers so much in a short space. Horses, email, shyness, the feeling of not belonging, the political system, standing up for what you believe in, trust, absent parent and Scottish dance. Whoa, did I forget dealing with a chronic medical condition and ecology? But the book doesn't zigzag all over the place - in fact, all the themes tie together in a way to demonstrate that people aren't always what they seem and that confidence can be created.
