REVIEW OF PAPER 2 ACCOUNTING ICSA

- First of all, most of the reviews containing 3 stars are by ... who have read Mr. King's newer material but have never bothered to pick up some of his older stuff. For those of us who have been following SK since way back, Dreamcatcher just reinforces our belief that he is the King. Tommyknockers anyone? That book terrified the hell out of me in my teens, as did many others, and Dreamcatcher has somehow magically transported me back in time to when literature made me nervous and had me making sure the door was locked. Maybe it's because I'm interested in the supernatural and maybe it's because I'm an open-minded person. Whatever the reason, I'm enjoying this book thoroughly and feel like I owe Stephen King a personal thanks for keeping me interested, and fulfilling my desire for more great literature. Stephen King, Edgar Allen Poe, Howard Phillips Lovecraft, Clive Barker, Robert R. McCammon, Tolkien... thank you all!

- Once the dreamcatcher caught my attention it didn't let me go. A little slow at first but as soon as McCarty appears it gears up to speed. Anyway I think it will be difficult to turn it into a good film as most of the plot goes on within the minds of the characters.
