REVIEW OF PDF WINDOWS PHONE 8X BY HTC TELESTIAL

- W. E. B. Griffin, under the name Alex Baldwin, published four book in his 'Men at War' series. Later, after he became famous for his other series such as 'Brotherhood of War' and 'The Corps' they were reprinted under his own name. I liked the series when it was first published, and I like it's continuation here. The story follows the usual Griffin format of several continuing stories with each new chapter continuing one story line. In this book the guys are back in the US (mostly) chasing down Nazi saboteurs who have come in by sub and are blowing things up. How good is it? If you like Griffin's style and stories, this is a good one to read. It seems that his son has joined him in writing. Mr. Griffin went into the Army in 1946, so he has to be about 80 now. Perhaps because of this, the book suffers from some 'new writer' problems. I hope that his son continues the verious series, not only this one but some of the others as well. I suspect that this will enable the writing style to develop further.

- With today's health consciousness it was interesting to pick up a cookbook named The Fearless Frying Cookbook written by Hoppin' John Martin Taylor. This book contained over 125 recipes that are almost all fried in one fashion or another. Recipes have the ingredients fried in butter, olive oil, peanut oil, lard, sesame oil, and vegetable oil to name a few. The recipes obviously do not offer any nutritional information. Many of the recipes are poorly laid-out making the cook turn the pages to look at the balance of the recipe that may only be a few extra lines. While many cookbooks keep the recipes to the same or approximate serving sizes, this book goes from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 and 8 to 10 with some recipes designed for 3 and other unusal serving sizes. Almost all of the recipes are quick and easy and contain ingredients readily available at all basic grocery stores. The book is designed with three different font sizes or styles which make it harder on the eyes of the cook, but easier to pull out the ingredients the directions and the prefaces to each recipe. Recipes include such items as Sopaipillas, Chickpea Fritters with Sorrel, Fried Egg Salad, Fried Calzone, Fried Shark, Sesame Fried Fish, Pan-Fried Crab Cakes, Deep-Fried Turkey Breast, Pan-Fried Pork Chops, Fried Lamb Patties, Okra Fritters, Fried Bananas, and Fried Ice Cream. Published by Workman publishing, The Fearless Frying Cookbook bills itself as a cookbook with recipes that are "surprisingly greaseless". I give Hoppin' Taylor credit for putting together an entire cookbook on today's most sensitive health topic - frying of foods, but I would have like to see the book contain a few more alternatives to each recipe and the courage to show the nutritional data on each recipe.
