REVIEW OF STEEL DESIGNERS MANUAL 2017 AZERIPARK

- There is no excuse for charging money for a book without an editor. There's no consistency between the text and the diagrams. Additionally, the LDAP section assumes a great deal of background in X.500 as the author spews forth his opinions.

- This book is a little better than the first one. Tarl Cabot had been sent home to Earth, and several years have passed while he has lived there. He again ends up in Gor, and finds out that many things have changed. The city where he used to live now no longer exists, which, politically makes him clanless, or an outlaw. Outlaws of course get involved in violence and adventure.
