The roots of the modern-day outpouring of the Spirit can be traced to a clapboard building during the turn-of-the-century in Los Angeles, California, Bishop Otis G. Clark became acquainted with Emma Mother of Azusa and Henry Cotton and lived in their home. Clark arrived in Los Angeles in 1921 after the Tulsa, Oklahoma race riot. Mother Emma Cotton mentored Clark. He was her personal driver, while Henry her husband was a porter on the train going from city to city. They tried to keep the Azusa churches open. They visited churches in California and other states where Azusa churches started. At Azusa, the long services were punctuated by fiery preaching, spontaneous singing and fervent praying. People were baptized with the Spirit, spoke in tongues, and fell under the power. Led by William J. Seymour, a Black Holiness preacher, Azusa attracted people of all colors and all walks of life. Whites, Blacks, Hispanics, and Asians together experienced the Spirit's manifest presence. Seymour, who had received teaching on the Holy Spirit while listening through the doorway of an all-white classroom, knew his experience was for all people. It's a fact, some twenty-six major denominations, including the Assemblies of God, Four Square, Church of God in Christ, Church of God -Cleveland Tennessee, Apostolic Faith, United Pentecostal Church, and Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, all trace their roots to the Azusa Street Revival; and 700 denominations, including independent denominations. Ambassadors Gwyneth Williams and Star Williams are blessed to have

Bishop Otis G. Clark as father and grandfather. Seldom when a chronicle is written are the readers privileged to have "first-hand" information. Bishop Clark knew many of the original "saints" and now recalls the events in the pages of this book. Join with me as we recount the events of the Azusa Mission. They are excited to have this privilege to retrace the roots of this move as we endeavor to complete what God started in 1906. Let us through these pages find the true spirit of Azusa, the spirit of unity.

Serving as the "catalyst" of the Pentecostal movement in the twentieth century, William J. Seymour turned a tiny former horse stable in Los Angeles into an international center of revival. Baptism of the Holy Spirit, with the evidence of speaking in tongues, was a major part of the meetings held there, and Seymour led the first organized movement that promoted this experience. At Azusa, blacks, whites, Hispanics, and Europeans all met and worshiped together, crossing formerly impossible cultural lines. "There is no Jew or Gentile, bond or free, in the Azusa Mission," Seymour said. "No instrument that God can use is rejected on account of color or dress or lack of education. This is why God has built up the work." Compiled by Roberts Liardon, author of the bestselling God's Generals series, The Great Azusa Street Revival features historic accounts, eyewitness testimonies to the power of God, and photos capturing the multicultural, worldwide appeal of Seymour and his ministry. Included are many of Seymour's stirring sermons and writings, which are still relevant to believers today. Although the revival was short-lived, it produced and exploded the Pentecostal movement around the world. Today, many denominations attribute their founding to the participants of the Azusa Street church, and countless others are linked to this revival.

William J. Seymour, the son of former slaves, was the founder and pastor of the famed Azusa Street Mission in Los Angeles, California from 1906 until his death in 1922. Seymour was baptized in the Roman Catholic Church, converted in Methodism, sanctified in the Church of God Reformation movement, and then introduced to the Apostolic Faith or Pentecostal message in 1905. He took that message to Los Angeles in 1906. In addition to founding the mission at 312 Azusa Street, Seymour traveled and helped to establish and organize other missions across the country. The Doctrine and Discipline was intended to be a policy and polity guide for all the Apostolic Faith Missions under Seymour's guidance. It contains sections on doctrine, the Christian family, the church, the ministry, and other subjects. Also included are forms that Seymour used for weddings, funerals, the installation of church officers, and more. This is the only book ever written by Seymour. Published in 1915, the original book is extremely rare. This reprint makes the book available to the public for the first time in 85 years. Although Seymour's original thought is included, much of the book is a compilation from other church disciplines in the Wesleyan tradition. - Publisher.

Are you searching for a greater outpouring of the Holy Spirit? Are you looking to experience a baptism in fire like the one the apostles did in the Book of Acts? William J. Seymour, father of the 1906 Azusa Street Revival, knows a little bit about that. This book, William J Seymour & His Azusa Street Sermons, contains the 18 sermons preached by Bro. Seymour at 312 Azusa Street as recorded in the Apostolic Faith from 1906 onwards. About the Azusa Street Revival: The Azusa Street revival began in 1906 when a group of Christians led by William Seymour began praying for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Within days of the revival beginning, the group would outgrow their premises, moving to the Azusa Street Mission centre at 312 Azusa Street. From this humble premises God would light a spark that would fuel one of the biggest and most powerful revivals of the last two millennia. Through William J Seymour, thousands would be baptized in the Holy Spirit with many receiving the gift of tongues as well as divine healing and freedom from demonic possession. "No instruments of music are used. None are needed. No choir- the angels have been heard by some in the spirit. No collections are taken. No bills have been posted to advertise the meetings. No church organization is back of it. All who are in touch with God realize as soon as they enter the meetings that the Holy Ghost is the leader." - Observer at the Azusa Street Church "Proud, well-dressed preachers came to 'investigate'. Soon their high looks were replaced with wonder, then conviction comes, and very often you will find them in a short time wallowing on the dirty floor, asking God to forgive them and make them as little children" - Apostolic Faith, Issue #1 The following sermons (all of which are contained within this book) are recorded as having been preached by William Seymour: - The Precious Atonement - The Way into the Holiest - River of Living Water - In Money Matters - Counterfeits - Behold the Bridegroom Cometh - Receive Ye the Holy Ghost - Gifts of the Spirit - Rebecca; Type of the Bride of Christ - The Baptism with the Holy Ghost - The Holy Spirit Bishop of the Church - The Marriage Tie - Letter to one seeking the Holy Ghost - Christ's Messages to the Church - "To the Married" - Sanctified by the Cross - The Baptism of the Holy Ghost - The Holy Ghost and the Bride of focused study in church history to reveal the captivating story of the Apostolic Faith Mission in Los Angeles, which became known as the Azusa Street Mission. Sometimes the largest blaze begins with the tiniest spark. At the dawn of the twentieth century, William J. Seymour, the son of Louisiana slaves, began meeting with a tiny congregation in a two-story wooden building in downtown Los Angeles. What began as a spontaneous gathering of believers quickly grew into a passionate revival and renewal of the work of the Holy Spirit. The movement spread at breathtaking speed. With little more than a printing press, a trolley stop, and a powerful message, the spiritual fire emanating from the Apostolic Faith Mission on Azusa Street rapidly crossed strict cultural and national borders—into Mexico, Canada, Britain, Scandinavia, Africa, India, and China. Led by William J. Seymour, the revival became the catalyst for the modern Pentecostal movement. Today, the more than 500 million Christians who identify as Pentecostal or Charismatic can trace the roots of their faith to this humble beginning at Azusa Street. The Azusa Street Mission and Revival tells the full story of how this uniquely diverse and inclusive group grew into a powerful movement that forever changed the landscape of Christianity.

For days the religious-revival service there went on and on--and within a week the Los Angeles Times was reporting on a "weird babble" coming from the building. Believers were "speaking in tongues," the way they did at the first Pentecost recorded in the Bible?and a pentecostal movement was created that would, by the start of the twenty-first century, attract over 400 million followers worldwide. If you are like most Pentecostals and Charismatic believers, you have probably heard the phrase, "The Azusa Street Revival." But how much do you know, or how much have you heard about Azusa Street? As a Bible teacher, and as a student of Church history, Mary Peninger became intrigued with the Azusa Street story. Azusa's story is one of the most powerful Revivals in Church History. Azusa Street was a Revival, which radiated from a mission house (which was a former livery stable). Azusa touched its world for Jesus Christ! So powerful was the Azusa Street Revival that its effects are still being felt today, over 110 years later! Mary wanted to share the Azusa Street story with other believers. She created (and taught) this short series of lessons as an introduction to Azusa Street. This book is a brief look back, a visit, to the Azusa Street Revival.

REVIEW OF THE AZUSA STREET MISSION AND REVIVAL

- Wonderful story with charming characters. A lovely beach read.
- This is supposed to be an illustrated book. I bought this to replace a copy that got "borrowed" but all of the wonderful drawings are missing. The story is good but without the illustrations I wouldn't buy it.
