Being fortunate enough to have been around thoroughbreds, and just plain horses all my life, this horse, since day one that I saw him, for some reason, struck some chord in my being that was very deep, sometimes you meet or come in contact with beings that seem to be kindred spirits of some very close nature. Secretariat was one of those very inspirational beauties. This book does him true justice.

Also the reviews, I mean 5's across !! Just as a side note, I don't know how many watched the Belmont Stakes this year, (2009), but the horse that won, Summer Bird, looked somewhat like Big Red. The horse, (Mine that Bird), that he ran by at the finish line is his half brother, (both by Birdstone), the only difference is one of the great great grandfathers on the, (Summer Birds) dams side is..... you guessed it, Secretariat. Blessings.....

- I just bought a pressure cooker but the instructions were next to useless, so I ordered this book. It is great! All my questions on how to use the cooker were answered.
