REVIEW OF RANDOM HOUSE HENRIETTA LACKS TEACHER GUIDE ANSWERS

- I can't understand all the fuss about this book. It was vague, wordy, ambiguous, contradictory, and or no practical help. We are told to "anchor our longings" but never told how or what exactly he means by this. I can literally open any page of this book and wonder what on earth he is talking about because he never gives examples or practical steps. Example: "The visitor is one who belongs somewhere else, but is now here in the world of your belonging." Read on in the paragraph and you get more of the same. I stayed with it to the end assuming that he would surely explain some fundamental truth that we can apply to our lives. He didn't.

- As in my other reviews, you can see that I really am enamored with this author. He has lived in the areas, and if he tells you something is that way, you can bet on it!
