REVIEW OF ACCT3000 FINANCIAL STATEMENT ANALYSIS UTOLEDO

- The Giver by Lois Lowry is an interesting novel, I read it with my class in 11th grade, but I think I would have read it even if we hadn't done this in class. I like science-fiction stories, so I could compare it to "1984" and "Brave New World" while reading. First of all I have to say that in fact it IS a novel for young adults, its quite easy written and I think easy to follow the story. I liked especially the great imagination of the author, who created a whole new world which is really frightening sometimes. However I detested the open ending, in which the reader is left with a lack of information. Some fantasy-elements, like memory-transmitting, are disturbing the sf-atmosphere, like I want it to be. In contrast to "BNW" and "1984" I can hardly imagine any solution or advise for our future which the author might have been thinking of while writing this novel. All in all it is a good experience to read but if one is one of this hardcore-science-fiction readers (like me) one is dissapointed. My suggestion: read it, if your less than 17 years old!

- at the end of the book it leaves you hanging I don't like when books hang but i liked the booke i wonder if they die
