REVIEW OF CHAPTER 8 TEST FORM 2C GEOMETRY

- Too bad Capstick only lasted as long as he did. Ruark was also an early departure: hard to figure when big game hunting is such a physically demanding pursuit. Same to be said for Mike Mentzer, a former Mr. USA Bodybuilder (Mr. Heavy Duty), who died of a heart attack @ 50. This probably proves a genetic link.

- Tillich is one of the most creative and influential theologians and philosophers of the twentieth century. He is particularly influential here in America. When this book was first issue it was recognized as one of the great books of popular philosophy/theology yet written. In it, Tillich takes the reader through the different ways a person can be (essentially different ways of living). The reader will find this book not only useful in terms of their own self evaluation and helping others, but they will find it a book that, when properly understood, changes peoples lives. A word to the wise: Many people have complained that this book is a little difficult to read at first. This is because Tillich uses terminology which he has invented. He is not always good about telling the reader know what he means. However, after you read more and more of the book you get a good grasp of what he means. Stick with it. You wont be sorry.
