REVIEW OF MBA MANAGERIAL ECONOMICS QUESTION PAPER KAMARAJ

UNIVERSITY

- I am fonder of Through the Looking Glass than Alice in Wonderland, perhaps because of less exposure (e.g., Disney and other commercial venues). The drawings by Tenniel are brilliant and add the right flavor to the story. The book is well-written, surreal with bizarre, fascinating characters (whom a little girl has to figure out), unique situations, word play, puzzles and a mocking irreverent tone towards high society.

Whenever as an adult I'd hit a snag and couldn't read, I would always pull out this one and it would put me back on track again. Another I will treasure for the memories of sharing it with my kid.

- It was fun to read this book because so much of what is in here is now in our popular culture today. The movie "The Matrix" made a ton of references to Alice in Wonderland. I enjoyed all of Carroll's plays on words and grammatical structure.
