- Big Cicadas is enjoyable on many levels. The story begins with Jay Jarvis, a middle school teacher in the small town of Still Creek, living his comfortable life. But the teacher's life starts to crumble when he doesn't conform to his community's wishes. This novel successfully investigates the journey Jarvis takes to remain an individual mind in a community of conformers. When Jarvis looks to his past for help, his character's depth is amplified. The writing style is intelligent and effective. Also, Miller infuses feeling into his characters. One conversation in Big Cicadas comes to mind that had a powerful emotional impact on me. I especially enjoyed the conclusion where I felt everything just fell into place. This novel was an excellent read. I've already recommended it to many of my friends.
