REVIEW OF PHARMACEUTICS 1 RM MEHTA

- Love this when I read it 30+ years ago and still do. Often recommend it to young women now. Favorite quote when she says "you make me so happy" and he replies, "no ,don't make responsible for your happiness". Profound impact then and now.

- Tina Turner is the reason I found this book, and all others by Daisaku Ikeda, president of the Soka Gakkai International. After hearing Tina Turner speak about her Buddhist practice in interviews, and hearing her give credit to Buddhism for her happiness and in life, I decided to look further into it myself. Tina Turner is one of my favorite performers, and her life story has inspired me for many years. Tina mentioned Daisaku Ikeda as the person who brought Nichiren Daishonin's Buddhism, the practice of Nam-myoho-enge-kyo, to America. This book in particular, THE HUMAN REVOLUTION, is the story of Mr. Ikeda's struggle to build the foundation of Soka Gakkai, the organization that brought this form of Buddhism to the rest of the world. This is the Buddhist practice to which Tina attributes her spiritual fulfillment and strength. Thanks to Tina's explanations, I was able to locate the SGI-USA and from there I discovered many profound, inspirational and educational writings by Daisaku Ikeda. This book is just one of Mr. Ikeda's many contributions to further the understanding of Buddhist principles and their application in every day life. I highly recommend that anyone interested in the Buddhist practice of Nam-myoho-enge-kyo read the writings of Daisaku Ikeda to learn more about Nichiren Daishonin's Buddhism as well as the Soka Gakkai.
