REVIEW OF HISTORY OF WORLD SOCIETIES 8TH EDITION

- i think this was typical KING before Bag of Bones. the story is eerie, though I will admit a little slow in places but by the middle of the book it really books. I was getting used to the newer KING but I'm pleased with this new book and I think any true STEPHEN KING fan will be too.

- This is the first Stephen King book I have read and I believe it was really good. Although its over 600 pages, its not too drawn out. I felt it slowed down during the chase part of the novel, but i felt overall it kept you threw it. Since it was the first I have read I do not have any comparisons to his other works. One reviewer criticized the obsentities, theyre are a lot but I truly feel without these, (they were portrayed through the characters) the characters would have looked less real, and some of them were funny. I was expecting more of ghosts, scary, type horror, but this novel dealt with aliens. King made it seem true, most of the time, not fake and too unbelievable. Overall a very good book.
