The romance go toward older people. This is a type of book for people who are mature. People who are older would love this book more than a younger person because the book is a classical book. Persuasion was a very appealing book. The was very awkward. They should change the ending because it sound crazy. They should made it sound like they got married instead of them engaged. It was a good book because it show how someone was persuaded to not married someone. Anne was in the world because the person she love , she couldn't get married to him. The story shows how much trails they had to go through to get together. Persuasion is considered to be a classic because it show how people got married in the 19th Century. The 19th Century romance was beautiful. It is also considered a classic because they married their cousins a lot in this story, they didn't mind if they married their cousin.
