REVIEW OF MANAGERIAL ACCOUNTING 3RD EDITION BRAUN SPORTLERORE

- "A Reader" complains that the cover depicts a "sister" rather than a nun on the cover, adding: "What a blunder!" Clearly "Reader" him- or herself needs to read a little harder. The book's introduction says: "I use the terms 'nun,' 'sister,' 'consecrated woman' and 'religious' interchangeably, although there are differences according to Church canonical law." (For the layperson, "nuns," strictly speaking, are members of religious orders, usually monastic, whereas "sisters" are members of religious congregations, generally working among the people.) It would be nice if the authors of such comments would take the trouble to look at the text as well as the cover, before rushing onto the Web to show us all how clever they are.

- So bad. How can people write a book about movie this boring. This book will be more useful as kitchen towel than reading. Stronger than any sleep aid And It says he is faculty in PSU, I'm not sure about that I check and he comes out as waged stuff? I do not know what exactly it means but isn't janitor wage stuff too? So boring book.
