REVIEW OF IGCSE CAMBRIDGE 0486 MARK SCHEME

- Good book. It was a book for my son's English class. He enjoyed the book. The book was in great condition.
- This book is definitely a classic, contrary to some reviewer's opinions. The virtues of it have been already told by other reviews, so I won't repeat them. Let it suffice to say that this book changed the way I look at the world, the Hereafter, and my fellow immortals. I would also like to briefly point out a bit of irony. Many of the negative reviews here say that the book was too long, and that all those pages would better be summarized like this: The irony is that what follows is different for each person! There is no "true" summary of this book. Each person pulls what is important to them from a true classic, and each of us is different. I encourage you, therefore to read this for yourself. I also have to warn you NOT to use Cliff's Notes. I think they would find symbolism in the placement of commas! I read a few chapters of Cliff's Notes and immediately the pure discourse of the author and me through the medium of this wonderful tale was corrupted.
