REVIEW OF LIFE SPAN
HUMAN DEVELOPMENT
BERGER 8TH EDITION

- The author displays a complete disregard for the teachings of the Catholic Church (either pre-Vatican II or post-Vatican II) and instead offers recycled stereotypical nonsense of Catholicism offered by the same pseudo-religious Protestant preachers who seek to discredit the Church. One might actually gain a better knowledge of the Catholic Church by reading: a) The Bible b) The Catechism of the Catholic Church (Something that the author of this book has obviously not done)

- This book, and I assume the rest of the author's work, is enjoyable primarily for its informal style, and seemingly obvious although rare deduction that focus on heroism or tragedy isn't necessary for interesting memoir writing. Although it was more often entertaining than not the book still left me thinking that if more people wrote books like this Sedaris would probably not be a frontrunner in the genre. 3 stars.
