REVIEW OF CHEMISTRY PRINCIPLES AND REACTIONS 8TH EDITION PDF BOOK

- Recommendation: Listen to his youtube conversation with PBS...Jared, a professor from UCLA stating that Europeans have a higher standard of living because they "use less oil". Having worked for a French company for 12 years and spent a great time of time in France, Italy, England, Switzerland and Spain, I can only say when Jared leads Alec Baldwin and the rest of the liberal establishment to Europe....PLEASE JOIN THEM. Europe....hah...ready to make 60-70% of US wages?" Ready to Pay over $60 per person for a meal at the Outback or Longhorn Steakhouse equivalent without the meat selection? Well, for much of the population, eating out is a rare occurrence and for many, completely off the table, so is fine wines, ice for your drinks....etc., etc., etc.,...and are you ready to live with people who use no deodorants, wear the same shirt for 3-4 days in a row, take a bath maybe twice a week. Why....HIGH ENERGY COSTS. Why?....europe has no oil! So what about the great civilizations of the mideast, why is there a level of poverty seen there with all that cheap oil. Islam, my friend, so go for it. Join this wacko and truly celebrate the good life from your 400 sq ft apartment in Europe or your camelskin and baked brick hovels in the mideast. I will fully support your quest for the "good life" which would prevent the collapse of the greatest country on God's Green Earth. WHAT A JOKE???

- I would recommend this book without a problem. It was thought provoking and an easy read.
