REVIEW OF THERMAL FLYING BURKHARD MARTENS PDF

- This book is by far one of the most artistic books Vonnegut has ever written. Both a very poignant critique of American society and a auto-biography. In fact, it's a book that not only lambasts American lifestyles it's also a critique of Humanity as a whole. It's a satire about human folly and futility. It's About flesh machinery and complacency. It's About superfluous endeavors and nonsense. I never though I would laugh at misery and calamity before in my life , yet as one reads this primer laughing at such things is all but inevitable. On the literary aspect of this book, it possesses the master penmanship one would expect from Vonnegut. It's post-modern meta-fiction at its best. I HIGHLY recommend this title to anyone who's willing to reflect upon his life and who's willing to reflect upon societal values and moral values and human value. Definitely one of Vonnegut's best.
- Hmm. This book was just okay. I love Lori Foster. But, even her portion of the book was slow. None of the stories were bad. They just weren't very good.
