REVIEW OF HOLT SPANISH 2 EXPRESATE WORKBOOK TEACHERS EDITION

- I don't know why I was a little disappointed in this book. I was excited to see the characters I left behind during the last Orson Scott Card read, that was the wrong one. This at least continued plot points that I wanted to see expanded on. But at least twice I felt the author came to an end. Middle of the book could have been an ending. At least Mr. Card didn't leave us there. The actual ending was much more satisfying. As of today I have the next book in the series in my Kindle ready and waiting. But I will try and read other "real" books awaiting review before I get started. My friends were right. I am addicted to Ender and his games! :)

- I thought Children of the Mind was kind of boring and disconnected. And why did Ender have to die and go into another person. That soul/body stuff really got boring after while. The one thing that makes this book worth reading is the quotes the characters make and the philosophy stuff at the beginning of each chapter. If you are interested in Card's best though, read Ender's Game or Lost Boys.
