Deluxe edition with special embellishments on first printing only. From New York Times bestselling author of The Wicked Deep comes a haunting romance perfect for fans of Practical Magic, where dark fairy tales and enchanted folklore collide after a boy, believed to be missing, emerges from the magical woods—and falls in love with the witch determined to unravel his secrets. Be careful of the dark, dark wood... Especially the woods surrounding the town of Fir Haven. Some say these woods are magical. Haunted, even. Rumored to be a witch, only Nora Walker knows the truth. She and the Walker women before her have always shared a special connection with the woods. And it's this special connection that leads Nora to Oliver Huntsman—the same boy who disappeared from the Camp for Wayward Boys weeks ago—and in the middle of the worst snowstorm in years. He should be dead, but here he is alive, and left in the woods with no memory of the time he'd been missing. But Nora can feel an uneasy shift in the woods at Oliver's presence. And it's not too long after that Nora realizes she has no choice but to unearth the truth behind how the boy she has come to care so deeply about survived his time in the forest, and what led him there in the first place. What Nora doesn't know, though, is that Oliver has secrets of his own—secrets he'll do anything to keep buried, because as it turns out, he wasn't the only one to have gone missing on that fateful night all those weeks ago. For as long as there have been fairy tales, we have been warned to fear what lies within the dark, dark woods and in Winterwood, New York Times bestselling author Shea Ernshaw, shows us why.

- The passport program that this book is about has been suspended, so there isn't a whole lot of point to buying the book anymore. The Associated Press reported on October 12, 2001 that Grenada has suspended its program of allowing foreigners to buy passports, saying the practice was too risky after the terrorist attacks in the United States. "Grenadian passports can end up in the wrong hands and be used for purposes other than for that which they were intended," Grenada Finance Minister Anthony Boatman said. The program drew criticism even before the Sept. 11 attacks on New York and the Pentagon, with some saying the practice allowed criminals to effectively adopt new legal identities for a price. Grenada also recently was placed on an international blacklist of countries considered uncooperative in fighting money laundering. It was unclear whether Grenada's decision to suspend the economic citizenship program was related to the blacklisting. Officials say the suspension will cost the island

- Having just been to Morocco and in particular the city of Fez I found the story fascinating and enlightening. We get rare glimpse of what went on in the 1940's behind those high walls with little windows- inside was a whole other world meant to be hidden from the outside world-a "retreat" that was supposed to hide as well as to protect women-that "veil" was dropped after many years and the author speaks to its demise-enjoyable read!
