REVIEW OF HHhH

- This book has all the characters you've heard of, and many you haven't! Small biographies of each person are grouped into different categories: Outlaws, Women, Blacks, Indians, Lawmen, etc. Very informative for someone just getting interested in the West. And good price too!

- I love Bulgakov. I know the Master and Margarita by heart. And I was dismally disappointed in my anticipations of usual delights interacting with this book. I write interacting, because this book is more than just reading material. But back to the translation. It has missing passages, whole paragraphs, it uses wrong terms and notions. I had to return my copy. I expect to have more luck with RICHARD PEVEAR AND LARISSA VOLOKHONSKY translation published in PENGUIN BOOKS 1997, since I pre-viewd it one of the on-line libraries.
