REVIEW OF SANDRO EL IDOLO

- I bought this book for my daughter because I remembered reading it as a child. I love the illustrations, the book itself isn't very long just the lyrics to the song but I still love it.
- The author had good intentions, but needed a much lighter touch for this book. The premise of an isolated island community rocked by a shocking murder is very intriguing. Unfortunately, the author didn't bring any new ideas to the mix. The killer is obvious from the first few chapters, and the rest of the book is comprised largely of heavy-handed caricatures and anvil-dropping. I don't like books that talk down or preach to the reader, and this did plenty of both.
