REVIEW OF 8820358727 IT8

- Now I understand why Julia Child had nothing personally to do with Julie Powell's project. I began reading this afternoon. I stopped 25% of the way through. I did not want to waste any more of my time. Julia Child had class.

Julie Powell does not. The language the author uses ruins any enjoyment of descriptions of the dishes. Any reference to Julia Child is a lame attempt at transfer.

- I was looking forward to reading this book since I have always loved Julia Child and love to Cook. How dare this Woman use Julia Child to promote her hatred towards our President of the United States and the Republican party! I honestly tried to overlook her constant bashing of Republican but when I got to page 191 where she insulted more than half of America by calling Republicans "Pure Evil". I took that personally since I am a Republican and did this Author realise she just insulted over 50% of the population who voted in the last election for President Bush? I guess she didn't care. I've decided to throw this woman's book away, actually I think I will take great pleasure in ripping it up into a million pieces then burn it.
