REVIEW OF PIXMA MP160 USER GUIDE

- But I do love this book! An opportunity to visit Middle Earth-to which I am a frequent visitor, Hogwarts-my favorite school, the Dragon Riders of Pern and the Force all rolled into one. I like the 'black sheep' character Murtagh and the obvious hints to whats coming in the next books. (sometimes authors can be too subtle) A good easy read for those times when you need a..good easy read! AND the fact it was written by a 17 year old...WOW.

- Eragon is an excellent book that I would recommend for a teenaged reader. Young Eragon sets out on a quest to avenge his uncles death with his dragon Saphira and his Teacher Brom. He later travels to the Varden to help them defeat the evil king. This fantasy takes place in a mythical land during the middle ages. It is a very exciting book with lots of fighting and conflict between the two sides. Based on this Book I expect the sequel Eldest to be excellent. Christopher Paolini did a excellent job on this book especially for a 17 year old writer trying to please kids just younger than him. The adventures of Eragon and his companions are compelling, you won't be able to put this book down until you are done. Eragon will leave you itching to read Eldest; these are 544 pages that you will want to read again and again.
