REVIEW OF LETTERA A UN DISCEPOLO

- I just finished reading this novel for school. It was such a heart warming story about George Milton and his mentally retarded companion Lennie. They begin working on a ranch that they desire to eventually buy and overcome many obstacles while working there. The ending of this novel was totally unexpected to me and I love when stories have a twist. The movie was just as great! I think I will read the Pearl next because it's in my closet and John Steinbeck has such an original writing style that makes me want to keep reading. I highly recommend this book if you enjoy classics. Everybody has to read this book some time in their life, so go out and get it!

- I just finished the book. I prefer to do questions when studying for boards. It is a good book to use to study just prior to the boards and helps get you in the mind set of thinking in terms of questions. My biggest gripe about the book is that some of the answers were just plain wrong...and the explanations that were given to substantiate the wrong answers contradicted the answers. There were some typos as well. Having some noticeably wrong answers does not give me a whole lot of confidence about the other answers that I was learning from. Best of luck.
