REVIEW OF ELEGIR AMAR

- I can't tell you how much I enjoyed this book. I can't say I have ever read anyone who comes close to speaking to the generation that I am part of, like Klosterman does. Let's face it, it's a generation that has fond memories of Screech and can count G.I. Joe as a childhood friend. As such, it's different than any other time, and deserves different treatment, and even different language. This collection of essays touches on points that seemingly come up all the time, but not to the level that Klosterman examines them. His look into why and digressions on it, makes this one brilliant book. I am telling everyone I know about this book, I believe so strongly in it.

- I attended a workshop by the author, Nancy Christie, & purchased this book there. In a discussion with the administrative team I am part of about attending the program, I decided to gift my administrator with a copy. Thanks. Patty M. Mentor, OH
