REVIEW OF PRINCIPLES OF ECONOMICS ANSWERS

• I did not want this book to end. The book is comprised of actual letters from a widow and her small daughter leaving everything they know of city life and entering the outreaches of wyoming to homestead. Engrossing.

• Molly Harrison 2-25-07So B. It by Sarah WeeksISBN: 0-439-79333-5What if you had a 23-word vocabulary? Well Heidi deals with her mother's everyday. Living with her mentally handicapped mother, and her neighbor in an apartment in New York, she lives a very sheltered life. The problem is, Heidi wants to find out who the rest of her family is and what the words mean. After traveling all over, she accomplishes her goals, but not without some sacrifices, in this great realistic fiction novel.This book was a wonderful inspiration to me. I loved this book. it was filled with so many emotions and issues that it just made you connect to the characters themselves. there were so many interesting surprises in the book too. like one time Heidi had finally found her family and realized her mother back at home, had died while she was on her journey. Although it was sad, it still had such an impact on the story. I really enjoyed the fact that I couldn't put the book down. every chapter there was something new and exciting that just left you hanging there. for example when Heidi went to the mental institute where her past was, she finds a man asleep in a room, whispering something. Soooof.... The one word her mom would say that no one knew what it meant. This book really grasps the concept that you shouldn't take what you have for granted. Anyone who likes books about people reaching their goals, and following their dreams, will like this book. Mostly girls ten and older would enjoy this book the most. Mainly because it is about a young girl showing the world that she is strong, and can take on anything. This is really a great book. I would recommend this book to anyone who wants to read it. It is a quick read and is easy to follow. Therefore, anyone who is looking for a great book, read So B. It.
