REVIEW OF DEUTZ FAHR AGROTRON 80 85 90 100 105 MK3 TRACTOR SERVICE MAN

- This book is a literary explosive, drawing the reader in and then exploding in his face with the realization of how terrifyingly accurate it is. And though it may be dismissed by some as far-fetched, I believe it is more important now than ever before, and should be required reading for kids in public schools. Yes, the famous novel that spawned the famous slogan, "Big Brother is watching" is quite realistic."1984" tells the story of Winston Smith, a jaded denizen of a nation controlled by a totalitarian government led by the enigmatic "Big Brother" that monitors the people's every action and uses truly original methods of torture and punishment to keep them in control. He begins to break free of the confines of the Party by having a forbidden love affair with a woman, and soon they both become involved in secretive efforts to join a supposed rebellion against "Big Brother".One of the most interesting points that the book makes is the government's manipulation of the English language. In the book, "Big Brother" is working towards creating a bastardized version of English called "Newspeak", in which political deviance is simply incapable of being expressed (for instance, instead of "bad", the word would be "ungood"). This, I feel, is hard-hitting in the sense that our language is slowly being manipulated to teach us to say and think things that are far from the truth, only it is political correctness that is causing this and not Newspeak. I recommend this book to everyone, especially those who believe that Communism could work. By the time you finish, you will probably think differently.

- Spirit House: A Vincent Calvino Crime Novel (Vincent Calvino Novel) Line up the next Vincent Calvino novel. Christopher Moore provides a guilt-free read in this quick moving and enjoyable crime novel. The locale is Bangkok, Thailand, the characters wonderfully cliched, and the story moves along at a rapid and fun pace. Think rawer Mike Hammer with some great international flavor. This was a free Kindle download, an obvious no brainer. The enticement worked and I will be purchasing the next.
