REVIEW OF THE HOLLOWS A MIDNIGHT GUNN NOVEL

- Absolutely awesome. Moving, Couldn't put it down. Amazing character studies. I could see myself in most of the characters. So revealing regarding that time period.
- It was interesting to reread this novel. As a teenager reading this many years ago, I didn't appreciate the strong anti-slavery stance. It showed the suffering of the slaves especially because of their separation from their families, and clearly described the beliefs of the slave owners, the slave sellers, and the anti-slavery movement. Though a bit preachy at times, it was a better read than most nonfictional accounts of slavery. Many of the characters make you want to root for them to get their freedom.
