REVIEW OF TARTUFFE BY MOLIÈRE

- in addition to providing many details about Dali's life, his relationship with Breton and the surrealists, his friendship with Picasso and so on, the book provides the reader with an excellent discussion/analysis/explanation of Dali's artistic/aesthetic choices and of his 'paranoiac-critical method'. This seems to be the definitive book on Dali's paintings.
- The contents of Gardner's book are thoroughly reviewed elsewhere. I intend this "review" as a warning only for Kindle customers. The Kindle version of this book is faulty. Paragraphs are in the wrong order, usually at the beginning of chapters. At best, having to unscramble paragraphs is distracting. At worst, it could lead to misreading of the text, which would certainly be unfair to the author as well as the reader.
