- An enjoyable mystery set in an alternative timeline where the Cuban Missile Crisis got out of hand. Nuclear war breaks out and the USSR takes out 4 major cities plus some military bases. The US wipes out the USSR. It is now 10 years later and the US is beginning to come out of its economic crisis when a reporter is pulled off a routine murder case of an old veteran due to national security. The old vet had some secret papers and the reporter wants to know what it's all about.
- This book is a good read for those newly diagnosed to thyroid disease. It offers the basic information on thyroid disease (Are you hyper or hypo, symptoms, medication, etc.) without overwhelming the reader. The author is very precise in her explanations also. For those of you looking for answers to more challenging and complex thyroid problems, this would NOT be the book to buy. It doesn't challenge any of the current practices and assumes that you have a simple problem that one pill will cure.
