- "A w w w w w w w w" screamed the Littlun, "It's a beast". The older boys reassure them that it's only their imagination, because that's all the littluns have for comfort. English boys stranded on an island with no first aid kit, nor any food. They have to try and stick it out and build some sort of a community until they get rescued. But along this journey, survival becomes betrayal, and back stabbing. Ralph, the main character, convinces everyone that they all have a part in living, and having some part of getting saved. But the rebel of the island, Jack, has a different plan. Becoming obsessed with killing and ruling above everyone, including the leader Ralph. They try,

Ralph's plan but all fails and chaos strikes, with Jack leading the way. Tragedy strikes among the fellow children and death rises of this mysterious island. This book is a great book and is recommended to all ages and genders. Just let your imagination explore and you won't be disappointed!
